

Where is the event?

Allies Dinner will be at the Salt Palace Convention Center, 100 S. West Temple in Salt Lake City. There is a parking garage under the Salt Palace or on the street. Catch a Lyft using code equalityutah for $5.00 in ride credit!

Who attends this event?

This is an event comprised of members of Utah's LGBTQ community and their allies. Some content may not be suitable for children under the age of 16.

How many people will be there?

We expect approximately 2,100 people to attend this year's Allies Dinner. This is the largest sit-down benefit in the state!

What should I wear?

The theme this year is Revolution Q, so make your outfit your statement!

Is this event ADA accessible?

This event is fully accessible to people with disabilities. We will also have ASL interpreters on stage for the performance. Service dogs are welcome! For accommodations, email into equalityutah.org.

What should I bring to the event?

Bring your picture ID if you want to drink alcohol, a light jacket, and as always, a designated driver.

How long is the event?

The opening reception is from 6-7pm and the main event is from 7:30-10pm.

Should I eat beforehand?

A full dinner will be served at the event (with vegetarian and gluten-free options) as well as alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages available for purchase at reception. There will be wine and non-alcoholic punch served at the table.
